SPEAKER GUIDELINES

WELCOME to a meeting of the City's Planning and Development Department. Your input is valued. Commissioners act according to established standards; see rules or policies for details. Staff is available to help orient you on meeting procedures. For the City's I SPEAK language line, including traducción en español, call (832) 393-3000.

The public is encouraged to attend meetings and take an active interest in matters that come before the Houston Archaeological and Historical Commission. Anyone wishing to speak before the Commission may do so. The Commission has adopted the following procedural rules on public participation for virtual meetings:

1. Anyone wishing to speak before the Commission should sign up to speak via phone 832-393-6556 or email historicpreservation@houstontx.gov, 24 hours in advance preferred.
2. Please note what agenda item you wish to speak on, or if you wish to make a general public comment.
3. You may also sign up to speak in the chat feature of Microsoft Teams, and either ask to speak, or write your comments there, which will be read into the record by staff.
4. All comments submitted in writing or by phone will be included in the agenda or read into the record by staff.
5. Keep your phone or computer on "MUTE" unless identified by the Chair to speak. When your name is called, unmute your phone by pressing your mute button or *6, or unmute your computer. State your name, spell your last name, and make your comments. When you are finished speaking, please mute yourself.
6. If a speaker wishes to discuss any subject not otherwise on the agenda, time is allowed under "public comments," after all other agenda items have been heard.
7. Applicants for a Certificate of Appropriateness and historic designations will be allowed to speak first and are allowed three minutes for an opening presentation. The applicant is also permitted a two-minute rebuttal after all speakers have been heard. If there are no speakers other than the applicant, there is no rebuttal period.
8. All other speakers will be permitted two minutes to address the Commission.
9. No speaker is permitted to accumulate speaking time from another person.
10. Time devoted to answering any questions from the Commission is not charged against allotted speaking time. The Commission may extend any speaker's speaking time if it is the Commission's judgment that additional time is needed to sufficiently discuss an item.
11. The Commission reserves the right to limit speakers if it is the Commission's judgment that an issue has been sufficiently discussed and additional speakers are repetitive.
12. The Commission reserves the right to stop speakers who do not follow this established decorum.

D. COMMENTS FROM THE HAHC

Commissioner Wiedower Jackson commented that some Foundations that normally support historic preservation feel that the City of Houston does not support preservation.

Chair Boesel and Commissioner Wiedower Jackson mentioned that the Astrodome Conservancy has an online Future-dome survey available, to submit feedback about the Houston Astrodome.

Commissioner Srinivasan asked about details for Commissioner Curry’s talk on Thursday about Glenbrook Valley and Mid-Century Modern Architecture.

E. HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICER’S REPORT

Roman McAllen announced one new landmark having been approved by City Council, being the Pitrie House at 3347 Reeves Street; and three protected landmarks, being 1908 Decatur; the Louis White Grocery at 4101 Lyons Avenue, and the Proebstle-Whorton House at 911 Woodland. He also mentioned Monday’s Glenbrook Valley appeal, and reported that the Director had approved 9 administrative Certificates of Appropriateness (COA’s), which are in addition to the items considered earlier today. He commented that there were 14 new pre-application design review requests to staff, and thanked staff for their hard work.
